Staff that are victimized and subjected to an occupational detriment for blowing the whistle on improprieties now have a legal remedy against their employer.

The Protected Disclosures Act, 26 of 2000 makes provision for the protection of staff that makes a disclosure that is protected in terms of this Act.

Any disclosure made in good faith and substantially in accordance with any procedure prescribed by the staff's employer for reporting is considered a protected disclosure under this act. A staff member making such a disclosure is protected from being subjected to an occupational damage on account of having made a protected disclosure.

A staff member who suspects or reports suspected dishonest activity or such activity which he has witnessed should be given the opportunity to remain anonymous should he so require.

Allegations made by staff that are false and made with malicious intentions, should be discouraged by Managers. Where such malicious or false allegations are discovered, the person who made the allegations must be subject to firm disciplinary action. Such disclosures are not protected by the Protected Disclosures Act.

14. HARASSMENT OR VICTIMISATION

Tswelopele Municipality acknowledges the fact that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make, not least because of fear of reprisal from those responsible for the irregularity. Tswelopele Municipality will not tolerate harassment or victimisation and will take action to protect staff when they raise a concern in good faith. Any act of harassment or victimisation should be reported to the Head of Department. This does not mean that if a staff member is already subject of disciplinary or other action, that action will be halted as a result of their whistle blowing.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

All information relating to irregularities that is received and investigated by Managers will be treated confidentially. The progression of investigations will be handled in a confidential manner and will not be disclosed or discussed with any other person[s] other than those who have a legitimate right to such information.
